

1949 CLASS WILL AND LAST TESTAMENT

To whom it may concern:

We, the Senior Class of 1949, have made and have duly authorized the opening and reading of our last will and testament. All preceding wills are hereby revoked, annulled, and cancelled, and therefore, not contestable.

We give and bequeath to the faculty, freshman, sophomores, and juniors of Fifield High School, to be equally divided among them, to share and share alike, all of our rights, privileges, and obligations as herein described.

First: We, the Senior Class of 1949, God Bless us, leave to the Senior Class of 1959, eight vacant seats to be occupied and duly respected.

Second: To the same Senior Class of 1950, as mentioned above, we leave our ability to get along with our classmates and teachers; also our honesty and honorable standing in the community.

Third: To the Sophomores shall go our excellent sense of cooperation and ability to promote great activities, our good looks and perfectly pleasing personalities.

Fourth: To the Freshmen, we release our dignity and self respect, our good behavior and politeness, our quietness and our sense of humor.

Fifth: To the entire student body we assign our books which were ardently studied during the current year. We expect hard study and a continuation of the good record of "A's" and "B's" that we have set before you.

Sixth: To our friends, the faculty, we leave our patience and ready smiles.

Seventh: To the faculty and student body alike we leave fond memories of many happy and interesting months.

Eighth: To various individuals we bequeath the following:

I, Jim Chizek, will my physique to Dick Putnam, my curly hair to Beaty Wirsing, and my little, blue Willys to anyone who will love and care for it as I have.

I, Georgia Boyer, will my wardrobe to the female overall population of F.H.S., my big, tall blond to Beverly Marsh, my ability to see both sides of a question to Dona Costello and JoAnne O'Conner, and my drawing ability to Nancy Mitchell.

I, Emily Janusik, will my serene composure to Fred La Voie, my long slim legs to Arlene Gierman; my musical hands to Helen Boyer; my horseback riding ability to Leona Knopf; and my stay-on elastic swimming suit to Audrey Poetzl.

I, Dolores Bukachek, will my position on the honor roll to Danny Zunker; my teeth to Jim

Boyer, my slimness to Norma Babcock; and my hot lunch job to whoever can manage it.

I, Betty Koshak will my high-heeled shoes to Mary Johnson, my typing ability to Carl Spiller, my height to Helen Billing, and my position of teaching the Glee Club to Audrey Poetzl; and my position at Herbst to Mary Lobermeier.

I, Warren Fellingner, will my red sweater to Mr. Prickril, well combed hair to Edgar Andrus, my extra long overalls to Franklin Chizek, and my popularity with girls to Ray Newman.

I, Laura Stein, will my long hair to Nancy Johnson, my ability to walk on high heels to Nancy Mitchell, my conversational ability to Joe Siroky and my date book to Dorothy Billing.

I, Dick Mitchell will my jeep to Lyle Tatro, my brilliant mind and large vocabulary to Etta Chizek, and my speedy reading to Pat Lannigan.

In witness whereof we have set our hands and sealed the agreement on the 20th day of May, in the year of our Lord, one hundred and forty nine.

Signed by the Class of 1949
