

1951 LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

To whom it may concern:

We, the Senior Class of 1951, have made and have duly authorized the opening of our last will and testament. All preceding wills are hereby revoked, annulled and cancelled, and therefore; not contestable.

We give and bequeath to the faculty, freshmen, sophomores, and juniors of Fifield High School, to be equally divided among them to share and share alike, all of our rights, privileges, and obligations as herein described.

First: We, the Senior Class of 1951, leaves to the class of 1952, twelve vacant seat to be occupied, but not filled.

Second: To our faculty, we leave our fine sense of humor, and our finest virtue-patience!

Third: To the sophomores we leave our high social standing, our dignified habits, and our ability to mix with the other classes.

Fourth: To the freshmen, we leave some of the beams of our radiant faces so there will be some brightness in the school.

Fifth: To our Janitor we will our peanut shells to be used as kindling in the morning.

Sixth: To the various individuals we bequeath the following.

I, Dorothy Billing, will my date nights to Delores Podvin, and my dark hair to Carol Gierman. Also my drawing ability to those who can use it.

I, Helen Billing, will my height to Marian Myers, and my flashy socks and sweaters to Martha Stevens.

I, Dona Costello, will my slimness to Mary Abraham, and my whoopee nights to Allie Wagner.

I, Arlene Gierman, will my short hair to Beaty, and my ability to keep quiet to Arlene Kukla.
I, Ellyn LaVoie, will my mysterious letters to Linda Brenneka, and my timid ways to Shirley McCallister.

I, Nancy Mitchell, will my driving ability to Gerald Billing, and my laugh to David Lannigan.

I, Kathrine Myers, will my trumpet to anyone who will practice more than I have, and my teeth to James Boyer.

I, JoAnne O'Connor, will my quick temper to Dona Weis, my hair to anyone who will take as much care of it as I have and my position at North Woods to Norma Babcock--after I leave, and my many infatuations to Delores Podvin.

I, Corinne Stein, will my A's back to the teachers to give to other deserving students, and my resturant to Warren Toilers, to be used wisely as it has been used by me.

I, Joe Wagner, will my red hair to Charles Brenneka, my job as basketball manager to Ile Lobermeier, and my job as mail carrier to Warren Toilers. I hope they do as well in all as I did.

I, Carol Ziolkowski, will my small ears to Charles Brenneks, and my ability to study to Mary Jane Engle.

In witness whereof we have set our hands and sealed the agreement of the 23rd day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and fifty one.
